

A GREENE COUNTY HOMICIDE.

A Man Shot in the Door of a School House.
An Old Friend.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.
WHEELING, W. Va., May 25.—Word was received here this morning of a fatal shooting affray at Willow Grove school house, Centre township, on Hargus creek, Tuesday night. A number of boys and young men had met at the school house to practice in martial music, preparing for the campaign. Thomas White, son of Vachel White, Jr., walked into the house. He and White had some words and then went out. No attention was paid to them, and the boys in the room kept up the practice on the drums and fife, making a deafening noise. A flash was seen through a window, but it was taken to be a flash of lightning. Because of the noise, no report of a revolver was heard by those in the school house, but it was heard by persons living near. The boys started in the living room, and stumbled over McHenry's body, which was lying at the head of the bed. They carried the body to the school house, and he lived about fifteen minutes after being shot. He was unconscious during that period. The ball entered young McHenry's body a little to the left of the center of the breast bone. Dr. Miliken, of Rogersville, was summoned, but McHenry was dead when he arrived. The constable was notified, and he started in pursuit of White, who was seen by the two boys who discovered the body, running in a field. Constable J. B. Roberts was also summoned, and Dr. Miliken, of this place, was asked to assist Dr. Miliken in the autopsy, but could not go.

John McHenry, Jr., is a son of John McHenry, Sr., colored, who used to live on Smith creek, some years ago. He is aged about 18 or 19. Thomas White is a son of Vachel White, and is about 17 years old. Both families reside in the vicinity of the school house. A feud has existed between the young men since the holidays. A warrant was sworn out before Esquire Gimes at White Cottage, and placed in the hands of Constable Cole, of Wayne township. He arrested White at his home, this morning before daylight. The constable took him home with him, and after giving him a good breakfast, brought him to this place, and lodged him in jail. His parents came to this county some years ago, from Rock Lick, Marshall county, W. Va.

THE MARTINSBURG TRAGEDY.

The Three Pittsburgh Men Held as Accessories to the Murder.
Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., May 25.—The whole of yesterday and the larger part of today in Justice Bartlett's court was occupied in the preliminary examination of Timothy Desmond, James Hunter, Martin Shahan and Lawrence Dorman, all of Pittsburgh, and the parties in the street row on Saturday night that led to the murder of John Poisel by Desmond.

An attempt was made by Messrs. Flick and Westenhaven, who were engaged as counsel for the defense, to have the later three named released on bail, but Justice Bartlett decided that they were accessories to the crime and they were sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury, which does not meet until September. Desmond has been fully realized the possible outcome of his trial and is very despondent. The other three are sorely disappointed at the result of the preliminary hearing, as they confidentially expected to be released.

A MOB FOILED

In the Attempt to Lynch a Prisoner—Two of the Attacking Party Wounded.

NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—A special to the Intelligencer from Dallas gives the following account of an unsuccessful attempt of a mob who attacked the jail last night to secure Henry Miller, a negro saloon porter, who killed Officer Brewer last night: At 9 o'clock it was plain to be seen that mob violence was intended from the groups of men congregated around the city hall talking in subdued but earnest tones. Soon the mob marched to the county jail and demanded the prisoner, who was promptly released by Sheriff Lewis, who told the mob that he would defend the prisoner with his life. By this time the crowd was considerably augmented in numbers, and, either with sledge hammers or a railroad iron, began hammering on the door. The sheriff warned them to desist, but they did not heed him until several shots were fired into their midst from the inside of the jail, where a number of guards were stationed. Shooting became general, and John Miller, a drummer for Padgett Bros., was shot in the face with small shot, and a man named Smith was shot through the leg with a large ball. Neither of the wounds are very serious. District Judge Charles Fred Tucker and ex-Judge G. V. Aldridge made speeches urging the mob to let the law take its course, and finally, after much parleying, the mob dispersed. It is impossible to tell who fired the shots that did the damage.

TWO FIENDS

Who Will be Lynched if They are Caught.
Terrible Case of Depravity.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 25.—A special to the Intelligencer from Noblesville says a horrible story reached this city yesterday and if true and the authors of the crime could be apprehended, there may be a lynching before evening. Two young men, whose names are known to the authorities, were in the eastern part of the county recently in the vicinity of Clarksville. As they rode along the public highway they shot cattle in the fields and dogs in the yards of farmers for pastime. Just over the line in Madison county they induced two young ladies to go riding with them. When a short distance east of here, it is claimed that they turned into the woods and outraged the ladies under penalty of death. The farmers were frantic when the wholesale slaughter of their stock had become known, but their indignation was increased when they heard that the fiends had outraged the ladies. Both the miscreants have gone to parts unknown. Their names are withheld for the present.

Tragedy in a Paris Theatre.

New York, May 25.—A Paris cable to the Herald says:

A terrible tragedy took place in the little theatre which is known as the Theatre d'Appelation. The wife of an obscure tenor named Perade, who could not bear to hear her husband hissed by the audience, died suddenly in the lobby, her husband meanwhile continuing to sing and play his part on the stage.

The body was removed to one of the boxes, and by the manager's orders the play was not interrupted. When the occurrence became known much indignation was expressed by the audience.

AMERICAN BREWERS

In Convention at Boston—Work of the Meeting Outlined.

Boston, May 25.—The thirty-second annual convention of the United States Brewers' Association was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning at Horticultural hall, on Tremont street, by Mr. Ellis Wainwright, of St. Louis, president of the association. The attendance was large. It is intended to illustrate by maps, charts, pamphlets and statistical tables the magnitude of the brewing trade and its industrial and agricultural connections.

It is recommended to present as graphically as possible:

1. The development of the American brewing industry compared with the trade in other countries.
2. The status of brewing by states, together with imports and exports.
3. The extent to which American agriculture is benefited by brewing; giving quantities of barley, hops, oats, hay and live stock used and employed in breweries.
4. The development and present status of malting.
5. The industries which depend more or less upon brewing such as cooperage, manufacture of wagons, refrigerators, glassware, ironware and of the various machines, engines and implements used in brewing.
6. The labor employed in the brewing and malting industries and in the dependent trades.
7. The revenue question.
8. The brewing and the beer traffic in its relation to real estate.
9. The effect of the growing use of beer upon the consumption of other beverages.
10. The effects of the increasing consumption of beer upon the health and morals of communities.
11. The results favoring and encouraging, and of laws restricting or prohibiting, the use of mild fermented drinks.
12. The rank of brewing as a wealth producing source generally.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS.

Appalling Reports from the Flooded Districts of Arkansas.

MARIANNA, Ark., May 25.—Appalling reports come from the lowlands on the St. Francis and White rivers. It is estimated that at least ten thousand people have been rendered homeless. Thirty-two lives in all have been lost in the Arkansas bottom and the report comes from the White and St. Francis rivers that several negroes and Indians have been drowned there.

A Hundred Families Destitute.

CAIRO, Ill., May 25.—Letters received here announce the fact that there are one hundred families in and about the town of Wheatland, thirty miles north, utterly destitute, the floods having totally ruined the crops, drowned their stock and washed them out of their dwellings. A subscription was started here yesterday afternoon and provisions will be sent there to-day.

Bayou Monien Overflowed.

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 25.—News from below on both shores is alarming. Bayou Monien has overflowed and caused heavy losses to planters. Boeuf and Temar rivers are rising fast, over five feet in twenty-four hours, and Tensas parish is being heavily flooded.

All Died at the Same Hour.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PANKEBURG, W. Va., May 25.—Mrs. Catherine Hart, mother of Mrs. David Burns, died to-day. She was born in 1820, but retained her faculties until the last, and her recollection of names and dates was phenomenal. Mrs. Hart is the third member of the family to die on the 25th day of May, beginning with 1890, at the same hour and almost at the same moment.

Oldest D. O. Engineer Dead.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., May 25.—John Linthicum died very suddenly of heart failure in this city last night. He had possibly run an engine on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad longer than any other man in their employ, the beginning of his service in that capacity dating back to 1840. He was a much respected citizen and leaves a family.

ALLIANCE GENERAL HOSPITAL.
Max Klein's Silver Age Whisky has been used exclusively in this institution for medicinal purposes with good results. F. K. TILDEN, Superintendent.

ALLIANCE, PA., Nov. 21, 1891.
I have been in the drug business for the past fifteen years. Silver Age Whisky has never been questioned as to purity, and always recommended by the medical profession. F. R. FLECK, Druggist.

Additional Trains Between Wheeling and Moundsville.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company has greatly improved the train service between Wheeling and Moundsville by the addition of three trains, daily, except Sunday, which were inaugurated with the new summer schedule on Sunday, May 22. By this addition there are now four trains daily, except Sunday, between Wheeling and Moundsville. They are as follows: Leave Wheeling at 7.00, 11.40, a. m., 6.10 and 10.45 p. m. Leave Moundsville 6.00, 7.05, 7.55 and 12.30 p. m. The train which heretofore left Wheeling at 6.00 a. m., will hereafter leave at 6.10 a. m., and will run only to Moundsville and not to Cameron as heretofore. The change in time of the Grafton morning local will prove of great convenience to the residents of Cameron and other towns along the line.

A Pointer.

"I am very much pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says H. M. Bangs, the druggist at Chatsworth, Ill. "During the epidemic of la grippe here it took the lead and was very much better liked than other cough medicines." The grip requires precisely the same treatment as a very severe cold, for which this remedy is so efficient. It will promptly lessen a cold and relieve the lungs, soon effecting a permanent cure, while most other medicines in common use for colds only give temporary relief. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

If the assessor has omitted to assess you, see to it that you are listed. You will be deprived of your vote in November if your name is not on the assessor's book.

The price of Wolff's Acme Blacking is 20c a bottle, and it is cheap at that. It costs more to fill a bottle with Acme Blacking than other liquid dressings, but complete for the market, including fancy boxes, artistic stoppers, and other paraphernalia. We sell the Blacking—not the package.

As it is our desire to sell ACME BLACKING cheaper if possible, but find ourselves unable to do so owing to its present cost of making, we hold a prize of $10,000 Open for Competition.

Until the 1st day of January, 1893, to be paid to any one who furnishes a formula enabling us to make it at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c a bottle. WOLFF & RANDOLPH, Philadelphia.
